INTERNATIONAL PATHWAYS

OPTIONS For Executives!

ELS offers unique programs to help busy professionals learn English and gain the skills and confidence needed to communicate effectively and achieve their professional goals.

- In these targeted courses, students have multiple opportunities to learn and use new vocabulary, terminology and business-related phrases.
- Instructors work with students to build their skills through practice using interactive instructional tools such as role-plays and simulations.
- Course discussions are based on up-to-the-minute business news, including topics such as globalization, outsourcing, the Internet, branding, and living and working internationally.

English for Executives

With its combination of private and group instruction, this program can provide the competitive edge needed to communicate effectively in today's international marketplace.

- Combined study in the center's General English classes with private career-specific communication training

- Includes 20 group lessons, with one being in the Language Technology Center, plus 15 private one-to-one lessons
- Private instruction each afternoon is tailored to your needs

Super Intensive English Program

One-to-one instruction offers the fastest way to improving English proficiency

- Private, one-to-one instruction (20, 30 or 45 private lessons per week)
- Instruction specifically tailored to your needs and interests
- Program can begin on any Monday and may last for one week to four weeks or more

Super Intensive Plus

For maximum results in just one week's time

- Customized private one-to-one instruction for clients with specific and urgent English study needs (70 lessons per week)
- Ideal preparation for an important business presentation, training program, or meeting
- In-the-field lessons, such as visits to banks, businesses, factories, etc.
- Because of the intense pace of this program, intermediate English skill is highly recommended
- Program can begin on any Monday and may last for one week to four weeks or more
