Accommodation

Our accommodation staff can arrange accommodation for you while you are a student with us in:

• Specially selected homestay families offering you a friendly and secure family environment where you are welcomed and also where your English will improve

• Cranbury House student lodge in Bondi Junction for the more independent person who does not need the homestay experience

Services

We understand that there is a great deal to learn apart from English when you arrive in Australia for the first time. In most cases, you will be a long way from home, so to help you settle in and find your way around, our Student Services staff is available with advice and guidance. They are here to help you.

Our students come from:

- Europe 35%
- South Korea 17%
- South America 14%
- Other Asia 14%
- Japan 19%
- Middle East 1%
- Other Asia 14%
- Middle East 1%

It was great to study with students from so many different countries – it made the experience a truly international one.

– Paola, MEXICO

I made such fast progress with my English proficiency that I went directly to AE3 after completing AE1. I am using the pathway from ELS Universal English College to Macquarie University where my course will be Actuarial Studies.

– Andy, SOUTH KOREA

My homestay family helped me with everything and it was never a problem. They treated me just like real parents would. I feel so lucky to have stayed with them.

– STEVE, SWITZERLAND
